OUR MAY FESTIVAL

Details Being Worked Out Satisfactorily—Every Promise of Success

The people of Glendale are slowly but surely being aroused to a realization of the fact that something is going to happen on the 14th of May. The meeting held last Tuesday evening to hear the committee reports and work out further details, was well attended and the proper spirit of enthusiasm was in evidence. While the first talk was to the effect that a thousand dollars would be required to finance the affair, later developments indicate that such a large amount will probably not be required to assure the success of the undertaking; this because so many individuals and concerns have expressed their willingness to help. The generous offer of the Pacific Electric to not only give the affair all the advertising necessary to insure a large attendance, but to furnish a band of music as well, was mentioned in last week's issue. It is also understood that the Los Angeles Examiner will donate the services of its band also, so that the expense for music will be comparatively little. There is a disposition shown on the part of all the Los Angeles dailies to be liberal in the way of free notices, and already the most of them have done well in this direction. Mr. R. G. Doyle, a former resident of Glendale, who still has a warm place for it in his big, manly bosom, was present at Tuesday night's meeting and did much to encourage the project, even giving assurance of his willingness to give very material assistance to the finance committee. Mr. Doyle's experience as a promoter of several other celebrations in the same line and his reputation as a "hustler" goes far to assure the success of the festival. The program has not been framed up as yet, although many suggestions are being considered by the committee. As stated last week, a captive balloon is one of the attractions being seriously considered. There will be a baseball game of high class, of course, and various other games at which such prizes will be offered as will attract the best class of amateurs. It is the intention of the managers to give a "free lunch" to all comers; with barbecued meats as the chief article on the bill of fare. The free ride about the valley will be one of the principal attractions. The owners of about 20 automobiles have promised the use of their machines for the occasion, and it is hoped that all other owners of these vehicles will send in to the committee a proffer of their services. The streets, particularly Fourth street between Brand boulevard and Glendale avenue, will be elaborately decorated both for day and evening, and it is expected that business places and residences will make good displays. Professional decorators will be at the service of everybody desiring their assistance. The celebration, although originally intended to celebrate the completion of Glendale's electric street lighting system, has grown to the extent that there is considerable sentiment in favor of making it an annual affair. There is a general desire expressed also to interest everybody in this section of the valley so that the interest and the benefit may not be confined within the city boundary. At all the meetings so far held in the city hall, a large proportion of those present were members of the Glendale and vicinity Improvement association which organization is taking a lively interest in the project. The list of committees published in last week's NEWS was substantially correct. The revised list of members of the finance committees is as follows:

C. O. Pulliam, chairman; W. G. Watson, C. H. Allen, J. M. Freeman.

The transportation committee consists of Mr. J. M. Banker and the real estate men, all of whom are requested to give their assistance in every way possible. Mr. T. W. Watson is chairman of the committee on decorations. The place for the main features of the celebration is on the vacant lots on Fourth street between Kenwood and Louise, south side.

A committee was appointed at the last meeting to invite the ladies of the Tuesday Afternoon club to co-operate in any way that they may consider best to guarantee the success of the day.

CONTEST NEWS.

Only ten days more for the contest to run and a chance for some one to bring in about fifteen or twenty yearly subscriptions and win the $20 first prize, so everybody run your score up and get busy or look out. Chester Nichols has failed to waken out of his sleep and his name does not appear on this week's score, but Willard Boyer is doing things. Next week only the first four names will appear on the score, so try to be one of the first of the four and have your name on the list. The winners will be announced May 6th, and all subscription or advertising received to Monday evening, May 2, will be credited if turned into the NEWS office not later than 5 p. m. Those already taking the paper can help these worthy contestants by sending a copy to your friends in the East or in Los Angeles. When you advertise, mention some contestant's name and let them have the credit for the points.

A NEW STORE.

The Beacon Light Company, gas and electrical supplies, having its main office in Los Angeles, where they have been established for eight years, employing a large force of men in making fixtures, both gas and electric, has opened a store in Glendale at 303 South Glendale avenue, and is stocking up with a large assortment of gas stoves, etc.

GLENDALE AND VICINITY IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION.

Meets Friday evening of next week at K. of P. hall, Brand boulevard. The attendance of everybody interested in the progress of Glendale and vicinity is desired.

THE SCHOOLS

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

The Rhetoricals lately have been particularly good. Among the numbers given may be mentioned the following: A very interesting paper by Elmer Nelson on the "Source of Ivory and Its Uses." Edwin Saddler gave a talk on "Noiseless Warfare," with reference particularly to the new device that acts as a silencer placed on the rifle or other firearm. James Moore and Arthur Taylor gave reports on the Los Angeles aqueduct, furnishing many interesting details as to the plan and construction work. Arthur Knight gave a fine talk on Halley's Comet. On Monday there was an interesting debate on the resolution: "Resolved, That the Insurgents Are Undermining the Republican Party." Affirmative, Roy McDonald and Dana Burket; negative, Marie Schwartze and Elvira Utter. Earl Sanborn gave a talk on the mono-rail car which conveyed much information. The Interschool oratorical contest will probably take place on Friday of next week.

The class in Senior English is now taking up the study of Macbeth.

The 12th year history class has been [illegible] subject of Wars, Tariffs, Suffrage, Trusts and Corporations.

The 10th year geometry class is working on the subject of similar polygons.

Prof. Hill of the University of California will give a talk in the auditorium on Friday afternoon (today) at 2 o'clock which will be well worth hearing. The subject will probably be "The Value of Education." All friends of the school are invited to be present.

Two new cement tennis courts have been added to the school's athletic equipment. The surfacing is like that of the Hotel Virginia courts, which are used for all championship games. Permanent backstops, imbedded in cement, will be set up and Glendale will be as well supplied as any city in Southern California.

The baseball team played its first match game with Burbank High on Friday on the home diamond. It resulted in an overwhelming victory for Glendale, the score being 25 to 3. The result was decidedly pleasing to the school as no organized practice had been previously engaged in, although several of the players had been members of the town team. The league season opens this coming Saturday, when Glendale will again meet Burbank. The team will probably consist of C. Emery, McNutt, Bourne, Davenport, Sprinkle, Knight, McDonald, Askeland, Barager and Moore.

The High school is very appreciative of the praises which the musical organization received during the chamber of commerce exposition.

The work of beautifying the grounds is progressing rapidly. Dirt has been hauled to fill in the front. The parkways have been cleared of weeds and the rear end of the block is now being scraped and leveled. The sidewalks ar being extended completely around the building. The planting of trees and shrubs will soon follow.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association of the Fourth street school will be held on Friday, April 29th, at 3 p. m. The election of officers for the coming year will take place.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the Sixth street grammar school had a most enjoyable and helpful meeting on Friday last. A few minutes were devoted to business matters, after which the ladies listened to a splendid address given by Dr. Kate Waller Barrett, national president of the Florence Crittenden association of Washington, D. C. The speaker's forceful words and winning personality carried conviction to an appreciative audience.

Mildred McKee gave a recitation in a most pleasing manner. After light refreshments the meeting was adjourned.

ACTION OF HIGH SCHOOL AUTHORITIES REGARDING THE USE OF CIGARETTES AND LIQUOR.

Resolved, By the Board of Education of the Glendale Union High school and the Principal and Faculty thereof that as this school stands for the highest development in morals as well as physically and intellectually, it is herein determined that the future policy of this school be as follows, namely: No pupil of the Glendale Union High school who is known to indulge in the use of cigarettes or intoxicating liquors shall be allowed to represent this school in any athletic contest; and resolved, further, that it shall be with the utmost reluctance and only under the most extenuating circumstances that any pupil who indulges in the before-mentioned cigarettes or liquor shall be permitted to participate in any public function, either literary or otherwise, given under the auspices of this school.

This resolution is to be construed to refer only to future acts of pupils and shall be considered to take effect from this day and date.

Resolved, Further, That this resolution be read to the student body of the Glendale Union High school and a copy thereof be inserted in the GLENDALE NEWS.

Glendale, California.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

"California Day," is the subject of the program to be given by Miss Cora Hickman at the Tuesday Afternoon Club, which meets at St. Mark's Guild on the afternoon of the 26th. Mrs. Virginia Davis, a prominent club woman of Los Angeles, will give an interesting paper on "Pioneer Women of California."

John S. McGroarty of Los Angeles, poet and author of California, whose name and poems are so well known, will add to this pleasing program. Mrs. F. Gilman Taylor, a former president of the club, has loaned her rare collection of California relics that were brought across the plains in the early forties, which will lend much interest to the program.

Every club member is urgently requested to be present and to wear her club badge. Miss Hickman has arranged a program that will interest not only club members, but the visitors, who will be present and all who are interested in California, her early days and historical events.

Mrs. C. C. Campbell, chairman of the courtesy committee, will be assisted by the members of the committee, Mmes. D. W. Hunt, C. W. Burket, H. C. Bartlett, O. D. Thatcher, D. E. Patterson and Miss Emmie Penn. Others invited to assist Mrs. Campbell are Mrs. [illegible] McNutt, Mrs. David H. Imler, Mrs. F. Gilman Taylor, Mrs. Martha Morris and Mrs. Edgar Pack.

The committee on decoration includes Miss Ruth Byram, chairman; assisted by Mrs. R. G. Blackburn, Mrs. F. L. Church and Miss Alice Frank. Committee on refreshments, Mrs. Scott Johnson, chairman; with Mrs. E. D. Goode, Mrs. Alex Mitchell, Mrs. E. C. Frank, Mrs. Eugene Pitcher and Mrs. Henry Ward.

GLENDALE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE EXHIBIT.

Brilliant Affair Engineered by the Civic Committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club.

To do something for the public welfare and at the same time to add to the club house fund the civics committee of the Tuesday Afternoon club devised one of the most pleasant and profitable entertainments that Glendale has ever had.

The affair was held in the Filger Opera house on the evenings of April 12 to 14. Many of the local merchants and other tradesmen occupied all available space in the main room with handsomely decorated booths displaying their lines to splendid advantage. In the hall rooms were found some most interesting exhibits of the work done by local artists and also of the art work in the schools.

One of the most liberally patronized booths was that cozy work presided over by the two attractive colonial ladies, Mrs. Pitcher and Miss Frank, who dispensed large volumes of homemade sweets. In another corner the ladies of the club served ice cream and cake.

Tuesday evening was society night and a large number of Glendale people were present to see the exhibits and enjoy the music furnished by Mr. Valentine's orchestra. Wednesday evening the program was given by the High School and on Thursday the merchants had the affair in hand.

From every point of view the affair was a success and already the committee has been asked to repeat it again next year.

DOGS.

The sixty days during which period dogs were to be muzzled in Glendale has expired and it is gratifying to observe the diminished number of useless curs upon the streets. The mortuary record in the dog department for that period numbers according to the city marshal's statistics, records sudden deaths to the number of eighty-nine, while some have been deported, and still others have been given away. The number of licenses issued is 162.

SPORTING NEWS

Well! Well! O me! O my! What a ball game last Saturday. A picked team of men calling themselves the Echo Play Ground team, came to our fair city to play ball with our boys, and before they got through with Glendale City the score was 27 to 3. Three Glendale pitchers, Benson, Rice and Hilliard, were used, but 'twas no use. All our star pitchers looked alike to them and it was a case of souse the ball and run. Our boys disgraced themselves by making 19 errors which won't win ball games, but took their beating like men and will try to beat these Union Well Supply Co. boys who play us next Saturday and who are the only amateur team who has beaten us when we have had all of our first team men. So let's all get together, for with Bourne, Davenport, Sprinkle, McNutt gone to the Suburban High School League game at Burbank we will have more than our hands full with a new team to snatch a victory from a team who has beaten us 9 to 2. Line-up for next Saturday as follows:

We congratulate Mr. Lee Gates upon his decision to make an effort to go to the state senate first, rather than aim towards Washington. High political positions as a rule should only be filled by men of experience in public life and the man who aspires to the United States senate should be willing to serve an apprenticeship in the lower positions.

Eighteen progressive citizens of Monrovia have pledged themselves to each give $500 as a bonus to secure a tourist hotel to cost at least $100,000. Wonder what would happen if Glendale took similar action. There is no more attractive location for an enterprise of this kind than this vicinity affords, as there can be found here all that attracts to the country and yet a ride of thirty minutes only separates us from the heart of Los Angeles.

Samuel M. Clemens, endeared to the world by the products of his pen under the pen-name of "Mark Twain," has returned to his Connecticut home after an absence of some months in Bermuda, and his feeble condition indicates that this brilliant artist in the world of literature, must soon pass from the scene of his mortal triumphs. We can only hope that he may yet be spared to continue for a while longer his beneficient mission in the world.

A numerously signed petition has been presented to the Los Angeles city council protesting against the change of the name of Buena Vista street to North Broadway. The sentiment behind the protest is surely deserving consideration; the old Spanish nomenclatures applied to streets are pleasant to the ear and should be preserved in nearly all cases, and there seems to be no sufficient reason why the appeal of the protestants should not be heeded.

The letter from Albert M. Stephens, Esq., giving an opinion favorable to the city in the matter of enforcing the provisions of the franchise granted to the Los Angeles Interurban Railroad company, published in part elsewhere, justifies the city authorities in seeing to it that the city secures all of its rights under the franchise. There may be reasons of good and sufficient weight, however, why the matter should not be pushed to immediate issue. The right to transfers over the electric roads operated within the city limits is too valuable to be lost through inaction or otherwise and the city trustees will no doubt do whatever they may consider necessary to have this right recognized.

"WELCOME THE COMING—SPEED THE PARTING" MAYOR.

Glendale has a new mayor. Mr. T. W. Watson, after filling the position of chairman of the board of trustees for over a year, has been succeeded by Mr. John White, jr. Mr. Watson has rendered the people of Glendale very excellent service during his incumbency. He has devoted to the work a large portion of his time, has been courteous, intelligent and industrious. As he retires from the honorable position of chairman he may do so with a thoroughly justifiable feeling that he has not only done the best he could, but that he has done well. As for the new chairman, Mr. White, his selection is perfectly satisfactory to all from whom we have heard any expression on the subject. He had the position of trustee almost forced upon him in the first place, but has developed a capacity for the work which made him practically the unanimous choice of the people to succeed himself. He takes hold of the duties of his position in a manner which promises a successful and progressive management of affairs.

HIS QUANTITATIVE THEORY.

William J. Bryan, to remind the world that he still lives, writes to a band of Jeffersonian democrats and expresses his rejoicings over what he considers to be a fact, that "they (who?) are discovering that any quantitative theory of money is correct." This is the conclusion that he arrives at after considering in his cheerfully lop-sided way, the prevailing high prices, of which the "outs" are trying to make an issue. Mr. Bryan's quantitative theory as explained by himself on at least one occasion, is briefly stated thus: "The value of any commodity depends upon the quantity of money in the world." Now, if the world or any considerable portion of it ever comes to the point of believing that absurd proposition, it will be positive evidence of the decadence of the race. Had the eloquent claimant stated that the quantity of money in the world is a factor in determining values —or prices—there would have been few or none to say him nay. The amount of money in the world, may have practically no effect on prices. The amount of money in circulation, however, is a much more potent factor, but does not alone regulate prices. The old law of supply and demand cannot be successfully put out of business even for the laudable purpose of proving that Mr. Bryan is a statesman.

The world might be full of money, even the channels of trade might be cluttered up with it, but that would have little to do with the price of wheat if the crop of that commodity should for one brief season prove a failure the world over, or if the people should decide to stop eating bread. Fate has utterly discredited Mr. Bryan as a prophet and his claim to the possession of the qualities of a statesman depends very largely upon his prophecies, as they have been his principal stock in trade.

SUPPORT THE HIGH SCHOOL AUTHORITIES.

The action taken by the faculty and board of education of the Glendale Union High school in regard to the use of cigarettes and liquor, meets with our hearty commendation, and will no doubt be supported by the community. The feature that commends this action to us most heartily is the fact that it is not prohibition, it is only a deterrent action tending to discourage and frown upon the bad habits aimed at. Pupils are left with liberty of action, but are shown in an unmistakable manner that the habits complained of are disapproved of by those who have the best interests of the pupils at heart. After men have reached the years of discretion, interference on the apart of authorities with any merely useless habits which they may acquire, is undesirable, but there should be put around the plastic years of youth every possible safeguard which without attempting the impossible in removing all temptation from his path, should at the same time offer every induceemnt to correct living and every practicable deterrent from going wrong. More evil is wrought to youth by the cigarette habit than by strong drink in the aggregate, because it is on the surface such a comparatively harmless thing, but is at the same time so insidious that a boy will find himself in the miserable clutches of the thing before he realizes it. We are informed that the habit of cigarette smoking on the part of the boys in the High school is usually acquired before the boy enters that school, which points to the necessity for a closer watch over the habits of the boys in the grammar schools.

THE COURAGE OF HIS CONVICTIONS.

In a different way from that of his distinguished friend who is now returning from Africa, William Howard Taft exhibits equal fearlessness in expressing his honest convictions. He is the most impolitic of presidents and has undoubtedly been a disappointment to a large proportion of his supporters, more because of this than anything else, but at the same time he has in a most remarkable way continued to command their respect. His address to the Woman Suffrage convention at Washington, the other day, should comemnd him very highly to the American people, not because he expressed a disbelief in the desirability of giving the elective franchise to women, but because he has the manliness of character which prompted him to make a candid statement of an opinion which he knew would be unpopular with his audience. It too often happens that public men conceal their honest opinions and cater to what they consider to be a popular sentiment, and it is refreshing to see a man occupying the high position of president of the United States who does not hesitate to express himself honestly. There are in vogue a number of ideas of government as revolutionary as that of woman suffrage, which would not have survived the years that they have dragged out their existence, had they been dealt with honestly by the men in public life who are for the time being, anyhow, the representatives of authority. The press is largely responsible also for the prevalence of many illusions which pass for reforms, because those who control their editorial departments do not wish to give offense. It is not the large corporations and big business concerns alone that exercise this repressive power, but church and social organizations also too often exercise it for the purpose of the suppression of opposition; while in politics the number of those who occupy positions "on the fence" does not seem to diminish. President Taft therefore should rise a number of degrees in the estimation of the people who appreciate honesty, because he had the courage to confess to an unsympathetic audience that whereas as a young man at the essay writing age he believed in woman suffrage, now as a man of unusually varied experience, he has changed his views.

CITY TRUSTEES

New Members Initiated—Mr. John R. White, Jr., President—Other Matters of Interest

An adjourned meeting of the board of trustees was held Monday evening for the purpose of organizing the new board. The newly elected members, Messrs. Coker and Lane, were sworn in, Messrs. Blackburn and Grant retiring. The election of a president of the board then took place. Mr. Anderson placed Mr. Watson in nomination, but at this juncture, the city attorney suggested that each trustee register his choice by ballot, which they proceeded to do, the result being as follows: T. W. Watson, 1; John R. White, jr., 4. Mr. Watson arose and congratulated Mr. White, who then assumed the chairman's position and proceeded with the business of the meeting. The appointment of committees followed a short recess to enable the chairman to make them up. The following are the newly appointed committees.

Auditing and Finance: Coker, Anderson, Lane.

Ordinance and Judiciary: Watson, Lane, Coker.

Public Works: Lane, Watson, Coker.

Police and Sanitary: Anderson, Lane and Watson.

Supplies: Coker, Watson, Anderson.

Fire and Public Safety: Lane, Coker, Watson.

The question of having an ordinance prepared to regulate the cigarette nuisance, was referred to police and sanitary committee. The retiring treasurer, T. W. Doyle, made his final report which was accepted and referred to the finance committee. The resignation of O. A. Lane as library trustee, was received and accepted. A communication was read from A. M. Stephens, Esq., in regard to transfers between the Los Angeles Inter-urban Railway Co. and any other line that might be operated in the city of Glendale, a part of which is quoted below.

On motion the matter was referred to the ordinance and judiciary committee to report in one month. Applications for the position of city attorney were received from Dennis E. Bowman and Edgar Levitt, Esq. Both were placed on file. The city attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance changing the regular meeting night from Wednesday to Monday and the hour at 7:30 p. m. The city attorney was instructed to prepare an amendment reducing the bond required of the treasurer to $10,000. Mr. White reported having seen Mr. McMillan and found him in a rather conciliatory mood and apparently realizing that the action of the railroad company had been precipitate. He proposed a conference with the Glendale authorities looking toward a mutually satisfactory adjustment of the question of grade and crossings.

A motion passed arranging for the meeting (if the time suited Mr. McMillan) for Wednesday morning. A form of franchise was presented by Mr. Goode for advertisement for sale which was referred to the city attorney and the board as a committee of the whole to meet Wednesday evening. To the Hon Board of Trustees:

Following is the substance of Mr. Stephens' letter:

You have submitted to me for an opinion the question whether or not the two street car lines hereinafter referred to are bound to give and receive transfers within the City of Glendale.

I consider the question not entirely free from doubt, but am of the opinion that such transfers must be given and received by both lines.

After quoting the provisions of the ordinance the letter continues: "For an understanding of these provisions, it is proper to take into consideration the circumstances and conditions existing at the time the franchise was granted. I am informed that at that time the Interurban Railway Co. did own and was operating a line from the City of Los Angeles to a point in the City of Glendale beyond the intersection of the main line with Fourth street and that at said time the said Interurban Railway Co. did not own or operate any other line in said city, and in order to give effect and meaning to the language "does now or may hereafter own, control or operate or have a controlling interest in"—the right of transfer must necessarily apply to the then existing road, although the same was not "operated wholly within the said city," but extended from the said City of Glendale to the City of Los Angeles. The words "operated entirely within said city" should be construed as limiting the extent of the said line over which transfers should be given and received." The letter concludes that in Mr. Stephens' opinion the lease by the Interurban Railway Co. to another concern does not in any way exempt it from the requirements of the franchise.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT'S MEETING.

The trustees met as a Committee of the Whole to consider the application of Mr. E. D. Goode for a franchise from Third and Glendale avenue to the north city limits. A long discussion over the provisions of the franchise followed. There developed a strong opposition, principally on the part of Mr. Coker, to allowing the proposed grantee the privilege of hauling sand, gravel etc., over the road. Mr. Coker was willing to agree to a limitation of ten car loads per day, but this was not satisfactory to Mr. Goode, who stated that the valuation of the franchise would be considerably lessened by such limitation, although it was not expected that the road would ever desire to do any considerable business of this kind. The matter was finally deferred, to be taken up at a special meeting Thursday evening.

After the board met in regular session, and minutes were read, Mr. White asked Mr. Lane to take the chair and presented a resolution approving of the actions of Mr. T. W. Watson while president of the board, the same being agreed to by unanimous vote.

The street superintendent reported that the gas company had open trenches along several streets, with no lights for the protection of the public. The chairman instructed the city superintendent and city marshal to see that the ordinance covering the subject be enforced.

A communication was received from Sidney Dell, Esq., making application for appointment as city attorney if any vacancy occurs therein. The city attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance changing the name of Mary street to Maryland avenue; also changing the name of Oak street to Ninth street, between Central avenue and Brand Boulevard.

Mr. White then made a report of the result of the conference held in the morning with the officials of the Pacific Electric Railway Co., as follows: The railway attorney and the attorney of the city of Glendale will meet and draw up deeds from the railroad company to crossing rights over the tracks of the company at the following named streets: Ninth, Maple and Lomita; the company to furnish and deliver all necessary material for constructing these crossings, the city to do the work. They further agree to lower the tracks to a reasonable official grade from the north to the south limits of the city—practically to a grade of about one inch higher than the inside curb along the right of way, this work to be done at different periods and completed within a year and a half as a limit. They will at once proceed to lower the track at the Fourth street and at Lomita avenue crossings. The cost of this work will be approximately $25,000. In the event of the city taking legal steps to have these crossings condemned, Mr. White stated that it would require from two to three years to get a final decision. It was the opinion of the trustees, as a committee of the whole, that the position of the railroad company is entirely fair and all that the city can reasonably ask. Mr. McMillan, manager of the Pacific Electric, also stated that as soon as connection could be made at Sixth and Figueroa streets, in Los Angeles, the company expected to give a ten-minute service for a short period in the morning and a twenty-minute service all the remainder of the day except during the hours from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m., when there will be half-hour service. The railroad also asks that the city of Glendale shall not, for the period of five years, ask for any more street crossings over the railroad right of way. It was admitted, Mr. White stated, that such a promise on the part of the present board of trustees would have no binding effect upon their successors, but the moral effect would probably be sufficient. It will be noted that the proposition of the railroad company does not admit of any crossing at Chestnut or Seventh streets, but gives one at Ninth street, where none existed.

The report of Mr. White seemed to be favored by the board unanimously, although no action was taken, the question being left to the city attorney to take up with the railroad attorney.

Chairman White was granted a thirty day leave of absence, rendered necessary by an unexpected call on business to New York City.

Adjourned until Thursday evening.

The members appointed are the following: Methodist, Mrs. Lennox; Presbyterian, Mrs. Colvin; Baptist, Mrs. Palmer; M. E. Mission, Mrs. Wood; Adventist, Mrs. Fitch; Episcopal, Mrs. Pulliam; Home of Truth, Mrs. Wells.

A JUST SENTENCE.

Brought before Judge Whomes Saturday last, Elmer Chatnam, a well known Glendale youth of about 18, was given a six months' sentence in the county jail on a charge of indecency preefrred by a young married woman. Chatnam had successfully concealed his identity for quite a while and was guilty in a number of instances, but Marshal Miller finally secured a description enabling him to identify him and effect his capture.

GLENDALE, CAL., APRIL 22, 1910

He Could Not Recommend It.

The editor was seated at his desk, busily engaged in writing a fervid editorial on the necessity of building a new walk to the cemetery, when a battered specimen of the tramp printer entered the office.

"Mornin', boss," said the caller. "Got any work for a print?"

"I have," answered the editor. "You happened in just right this time. I've got only a boy to help me in the office, and I need a man to set type for about a week. I have to make a trip out west. You can take off your coat and begin right now. I start tomorrow morning."

"All right," said the typographical tourist, removing his coat. "What road are you going to travel on?"

"The X., Y. and Z. mostly. I've never been on it. Know anything about it?"

"I know all about it. I've traveled it from one end to the other."

"What kind of road is it?"

"Bum!" said the printer in a tone indicative of strong disgust. "The ties are too far apart!"—Youth's Companion.

The Artistic Japanese.

Artistic impulses govern even the ordinary artisan in Japan. This, from an article in the Craftsman by Mr. L. Wakeman Curtis, illustrates the fact: "In so commercial and nonartistic a porcelain district as Nagoya I saw a big room full of men working in clay, hastily copying in quantities pieces that were to go, in a shipload, to fill an order in England. I paused beside a man who was finishing soap dishes. On each cover, before it went to be baked, he was adding the knob by which it could be lifted. That on the European model before him was utterly without sentiment, less gracious of shape than a freshly digged onion or potato. With a few slight, quick touches, seemingly as unthinking as a machine, he was yet doing more than was required—he was causing each knob as it passed under his hands to take the look of a half opened bud, a faint hint of a leaf being also quickly modeled in the 'biscuit' beneath it."

Paris' Worst Flood.

In the year 1296 rose the greatest flood of which history makes any record in Paris. "Men went in boats over the wall of the king's garden." All the island was covered, and from the foot of the hill of the university to the rising ground beyond the Marrais the upper stories of the houses rose out of a lake a mile wide. In that flood was swept away the old stone bridge that Charles the Bald had built centuries earlier, before even the Normans besieged the town, and in that flood the Petit Chatelet was destroyed. The Petit Pont fell into the river also, but that was nothing wonderful, for it was the most unfortunate of bridges and never stood firmly for fifty years at a stretch, but was forever being destroyed and regularly rebuilt. The waste of this flood was the signal for Philippe le Bel's rebuilding.—Hilaire Belloc's "Paris."

Points About a Good Horse.

There are some points which are valuable in horses of every description. The head should be proportionately large and well set on. The lower jawbones should be sufficiently far apart to enable the head to form an angle with the neck, which gives it free motion and a graceful carriage and prevents it bearing too heavily on the hand. The eye should be large, a little prominent, and the eyelids fine and thin. The ear should be small and erect and quick in motion. The lop ear indicates dullness and stubbornness. When too far back there is a disposition to mischief.

An Odd Gypsy Custom.

In Hungary, when the question of the baby's future comes up for discussion among the gypsies, there is no time wasted in argument. A blanket is held by the four corners, and the baby is thrown into the air. If it comes down on its little stomach it is a sign that it is going to be a musician; if it falls on its back it is to be a thief, and the education of the child is begun as soon as possible in one of these two time honored professions.

Painfully Frank.

"Mr. Coldcash, I have come to ask for the hand of your daughter."

"My daughter, sir?"

"Yes, I can't live without her."

"Well, sir, finish your sentence."

"Finish my sentence?"

"Yes, you were about to say you could not live without her income. Let us be candid."

How She Got the Job.

"The one thing we demand from our employees," said the head of the office force, "is correctness in figures."

The applicant smoothed her hipless skirt complacently.

"I have never had any complaints on that score," she replied, with a glance of assurance.—Bystander.

Anticipated.

"I've often marveled at your brilliancy, your aptness at repartee, your"—

"If it's more than 5 shillings, old man, I can't do a thing for you. I'm nearly broke myself."—London Mail.

Innocent Fun.

"Hey!" exclaimed his uncle. "What are you trying to do—break my watch?"

"No," replied the innocent solemnly; "I'yin' th'ow it thoo the floor!"—Buffalo Express.

The Two Pies.

Ruth, who has been married just two weeks, lives in a little flat and then keeps house for her lord and master. She has read a little and is wise beyond her nineteen years. On Sunday after their dinner had been served by the wife she went to the kitchen and returned with a pumpkin pie.

"What's that?" asked the L. and M.

"I made a pumpkin pie yesterday," his wife answered timidly.

He attacked the confection with a knife and fork, but could not make much headway and was about to declare himself when Ruth announced:

"I have another in the pantry, dear. Your mother sent one over yesterday."

She then produced the second pie, which was as tender and appetizing as the first had been tough and unsavory.

"That's something like it," he said patronizingly. "Of course you couldn't expect to become expert at once, my dear."

The girl laughed. "You're eating the one I made now," she said. And in her diary for the day is written:

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."—Portland (Me.) Express.

The Hip Joints.

The cup and ball socket and the air tight valve were first used in the human body. If our hip joints and arms were not provided with air tight sockets we should get too tired to continue our work for any length of time in just holding these limbs together by muscles. It is the pressure of the air which holds them in place, and thus all physical effort is avoided. In the various air tight joints and seckets found in the human body one may find nearly all the mechanical principles involved in the air brake or the use of compressed air for a thousand different things. Some may aver that nature did not discover ball bearings, a mechanical device which has revolutionized the vehicular world. But the principle is almost developed in the ball of the leg bone and the socket of the hip, which are made so smooth and are so well oiled that they slide backward and forward with practically no friction.

Marrying For Votes.

Marrying for votes was a device of old time British election agents. As the law stood before the reform act of 1832 widows of freemen on marrying again made their second husbands freemen and therefore voters. At election times widows were consequently paid handsomely to go through a formal marriage with a voteless bachelor, who, for a consideration, similarly agreed to support the candidate. The pair were married, the man voted according to instructions, and then he and his wife, standing on either side of a tombstone, said, "Death us do part." With this literal fulfillment of the matrimonial vow they regarded their marriage dissolved. At the last election in Bristol before 1832 a hundred women gave votes to men.

A Literary Light.

A short time ago a well known writer of London, remembering that he had never read the noncanonical books, went out in search of a copy and in one bookshop after another drew blank. At last he went to his own particular newspaper shop, which also dealt in Bibles and light literature. "Have you the Apocrypha?" he asked. For a moment the young woman behind the counter was puzzled; then, brightening, she said, "Is it a weekly or a monthly?"

Acres and Bible Letters.

It has sometimes been stated that there are more acres in Yorkshire than there are letters in the Bible. A person hearing the statement for the first time is inclined to doubt it, but it is true, all the same. Authorities differ as to the exact acreage of the county, one giving it as 3,882,848 and another as 3,771,843. But the number of letters in the Bible is said to be 3,566,480, so the acres beat the letters, with something to spare.—London Notes and Queries.

On the Wrong Side.

A temperance missionary in Glasgow left a few tracts with a young woman one morning. Calling at the same house a few days after, he was rather disconcerted to find the tracts doing duty as curl papers on the head of the damsel to whom he had given them. "Weel, my lassie," he remarked, "I see ye have used the tracts I left wi' ye, but," he added in time to turn confusion into merriment, "ye ha' putten them outside instead of inside your head."

The French Horn.

The French horn, or cor de chasse, is regarded by some musicians as the sweetest and mellowest of all the wind instruments. In Beethoven's time it was little else than the old hunting horn, which for the convenience of the mounted hunter was arranged in spiral convolutions to be slipped over the head and carried resting on one shoulder and under the opposite arm. The Germans still call it the waldhorn—that is, "forest horn."

No Occasion For Alarm.

Said a nervous lady to another lady, at whose house she was making a call, "Are you not afraid that some of your children will fall into that cistern in your yard?"

"Oh, no," was the complacent reply. "Anyhow, that's not the cistern we get our drinking water from."

He Didn't.

"Do you believe in signs?"

"No. A dentist's sign reading 'Teeth Extracted Without Pain' fell the other day just as I went under it and knocked out two teeth of mine."

VII.—Substitutes For Meat.

By EDITH G. CHARLTON,
In Charge of Domestic Economy, Iowa State College.

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

It has been previously hinted in these articles that meat need not form a part of every meal—in fact, the majority of people will have better health if they abstain from flesh eating oftener than once a day. The suggestion has also been made that meat substitutes, such as dishes in which eggs, beans, cheese or nuts form the chief ingredient, be served at least two meals a day. The variety of ways in which the materials may be used is numerous, all that is needed being a little ingenuity in combining them with other ingredients in order to obtain satisfactory results. Some people who are fond of hearty foods and meat flavors are loath to see the meat platter depart from the table only to reappear once a day. For such persons it will be necessary to practice the virtue of patience, make the other dishes substantial and appetizing and occasionally take a few lessons on food values. Beans, nuts and cheese all contain a larger per cent of protein than meat and, combined as they often are with other protein food, are really more nutritious than meat.

Cheese is a food rich in nutriment. It contains more than twice as much tissue building material than meat and a large per cent of fat. But because it is a concentrated food it gives the digestive organs considerable work. One reason for this is because the curd of the milk has been hardened by heat in the process of making, besides being closely pressed. Grated or finely broken cheese is more readily digested than that served in larger pieces. Cooking also increases the indigestibility of cheese, and for this reason in all dishes requiring cooking the cheese should be subjected to as little heat as possible. There is a large amount of fat in cheese, and cooking fat changes its character, breaking it up into glycerin and fatty acid. For this reason all fat used for cooking purposes should not be heated longer or to a higher degree than necessary. A very delicious supper or luncheon dish in which cheese is used in combination with cooked macaroni, eggs and milk is known as macaroni loaf and is made as follows:

Macaroni Loaf.

Three-quarters of a cup of macaroni, one cup of cream, one cup soft breadcrumbs, one-quarter of a cup of butter, one tablespoonful of red or green pepper, one-half cup of grated cheese, one tablespoonful onion juice, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, three eggs and one tablespoonful of salt. Cook the macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and rinse in cold water. Scald the cream, add breadcrumbs, butter, pepper, salt, grated cheese, parsley, onion juice, then beaten eggs and macaroni. Line a quart baking dish with buttered paper, turn in mixture, set the pan on many folds of paper in a dish of water and bake in a moderate oven from one-half to three-quarters of an hour. Serve with tomato sauce.

Tomato Sauce.

Two tablespoonfuls of butter, two tablespoonfuls of flour, one-half teaspoonful salt, one-eighth teaspoonful of pepper, one cup of stewed and strained tomatoes, slice of onion and half a teaspoonful of capers. Brown flour and butter separate, then combine and add salt and pepper. Cook tomatoes with slice of onion for a few minutes, then remove onion and add juice gradually to butter and flour. Cook thoroughly, then add capers.

The macaroni should be broken in inch pieces and cooked in a quart of boiling water to which a tablespoonful of salt has been added. Keep boiling rapidly until the macaroni can be crushed between the thumb and finger; drain and pour over it a quantity of cold water to keep the pieces from sticking together.

How to Cook Eggs.

The white of egg is almost entirely pure albumen, a substance which is quickly coagulated by heat and toughened by prolonged cooking. Albumen is the proteid part of animal foods and when hardened by cooking is rendered much less easy of digestion. It is probable that eggs and meat cooked as carefully as may be are less readily acted upon by the gastric juices than either would be in the uncooked state. Albumen coagulates at a very moderate temperature, only a little higher than 100 degrees, and at less than simmering point, 180 degrees, it is hard. Boiling makes it tough and indigestible; hence it can readily be seen that eggs should never be boiled if their digestibility is to be retained in even a moderate degree. The term "soft boiled" or "hard boiled" should never be applied to eggs; rather, "soft cooked" and "hard cooked" would better be used. The custom of boiling eggs three minutes is an unwise one to follow. This is the scientific method for cooking eggs in the shells, and when it is followed even the hard egg, cooked until its yolk can be grated, will be found perfectly digestible:

Soft Cooked Egg.

Allow one pint of water for two eggs. Heat in double boiler until water in the outside part of utensil is boiling. Temperature of water in inner vessel will be 180 degrees. Put in eggs with a spoon, cover and let stand over fire for six to eight minutes if liked soft cooked, thirty minutes for hard cooked. The same result may be obtained by having water boiling in saucepan. Slip in eggs and remove saucepan to back of range where water will not boil again. Eggs perfectly cooked should be placed and kept in water at a temperature of 175 degrees.

Nothing is more tempting for breakfast than a light, fluffy omelet, so tender that it almost vanishes at a touch. The secret of a good omelet is to beat much air into the eggs and then apply a moderate temperature in cooking that the albumen may not be toughened. The air in the eggs will expand by the heat and be retained by the albumen as it is hardened. My favorite recipe for an omelet, which may be served with tomato, cheese or oyster sauce, is as follows:

Plain Omelet.

Four eggs, half teaspoonful of salt, a few grains of pepper, four tablespoonfuls of water and one tablespoonful of butter. Separate yolks from whites. Beat yolks in a bowl with a Dover beater until thick; add salt, pepper and water. Beat whites until stiff, cutting and folding the yolks into them until the mixture is blended. Melt butter in omelet pan, and when moderately hot turn in mixture, spread evenly, place on range where it will cook slowly—about twelve minutes. Keep the temperature low until the last minute, when it may be raised to brown the bottom. When well puffed put pan in a moderate oven to cook the top—that is, until omelet is firm to the touch. Grease, cross the top and fold. Serve at once.

Cheese Custard.

Half cup of cheese, three eggs, two cups of milk, salt and pepper and slices of buttered bread. Beat eggs, adding salt, pepper, milk and grated cheese. Then pour over slices of buttered bread and bake in moderate oven, following method of baking custard.

What a simple dessert is a baked custard! It is a favorite with almost every person when baked until firm, with no indications of wateriness. And yet, possibly because it is so simple, it very often appears more like curds and whey than the article which the name implies.

The secret of success is in the method of cooking. The oven should be moderate, only hot enough to brown a piece of white paper in twenty minutes, and the dish containing the custard should be set in a pan of hot water on several folds of paper to equalize the temperature and prevent the custard boiling.

Baked Custard.

Four cups of scalded milk, five eggs, one-half cup of sugar, one-quarter teaspoonful of salt and a little grated nutmeg. Beat eggs, add sugar and salt and pour on slowly the scalded milk. Pour into buttered baking dish or into individual buttered baking cups, sprinkle with nutmeg, set in a pan of hot water and bake in a slow oven until custard is firm. Remove from pan containing hot water and set in cold.

Stews and Soups.

A few pounds of the clod or forearm are excellent for a stew. Cut the meat into small pieces for serving. Plunge into rapidly boiling water, set the kettle over the simmering burner or a very low fire where it will not boil again and cook slowly until meat is tender. Salt and pepper may be added after the meat has been seared, and as the water boils away more should be added. Meat is thus cooked in a small quantity of water, and some of the juice and flavor are in the liquid. Meat is boiled in a large quantity of water by plunging the piece into the boiling water and allowing it to boil three or four minutes. This closes the cut muscles, hardens the outside and keeps the juices in the meat.

In making soup the method is exactly opposite. The meat is cut into small pieces—a shank or shin is best for soupmaking—put into cold water and salt added at once. This will draw out the juices of the meat into the liquid. The water should not be allowed to boil throughout the entire time of cooking. If vegetables are used, they should not be added until the last hour.

A Useful Reminder.

An M. P. who in his magisterial capacity periodically visited a private lunatic asylum told the story of a man of some position in the legal world who went to see a patient who had occasional lapses into sanity. The patient made a great impression on his visitor as a well informed, healthy minded gentleman and was assured that his case should be inquired into.

On leaving, the grateful patient courteously conducted his morning caller to the front door, affectionately pressing his hand at parting.

"You won't forget what I've told you," he pleaded, with tears in his voice.

"No," responded the visitor, turning round to descend the rather long flight of steps.

"I don't think you will," said the patient dreamily, "but lest you should you know"—

And, lifting up his foot, he gave the unsuspecting, defenseless visitor a kick behind that sent him spinning down the stairway and sprawling on the gravel.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Bird's White Feathers.

The occurrence of white feathers in a bird's plumage is very common. It is, of course, due to lack of coloring matter and is liable to appear in both young and old birds. I have known of several old birds to exhibit this peculiarity (mostly in the wing feathers, however), and it may be due to imperfect nutrition and circulation as the bird ages. I have also noticed it in young birds in a number of instances. The phenomenon thus cannot be said to occur simply as a result of old age, but is rather one of those slight changes in the bird's system the causes of which we do not know. There is this much more to be said, however—when a young bird starts out with a few white feathers they are usually retained throughout life, molting each time in a similar manner. Old birds may exhibit this loss of coloring at any time.—St. Nicholas.

Patrick Henry's Fee.

It is said of Patrick Henry that during his practice of law in the Virginia courts and when he was familiarly addressed as "governor" a man who had been arrested for stealing a hog and who was out on bail went to the governor to have him defend him.

The governor said, "Did you walk away with that shoat?"

"I don't like to say."

"Out with it."

"Yes, sir."

"Have you got the carcass?"

"Yes, sir."

"You go home, you wretch, cut the pig lengthwise in half and hang as much of it in my smokehouse as you keep in yours."

At court the governor said, "Your honor, this man has no more of that stolen shoat than I have."

The man was cleared.—National Monthly.

A Lincoln Story.

When Lincoln, a struggling lawyer, was doing circuit duty in Ohio he once visited a country town where the general storekeeper had the reputation of adulterating, even to the danger point, his cider. In the midst of a general condemnation of this storekeeper Lincoln rose one night from his seat by the hotel stove.

"Come on, boys," he said.

And he led a party of a half dozen lawyers and judges to the general store.

"Let me have a quart of cider," he said to the storekeeper.

"Yes, sir," was the cordial reply. "And which grade, sir—the ripe, at 3 cents; the mellow, at 2, or the new, at 1?"

"It doesn't matter which grade, mister," Lincoln drawled. "I only want to poison a dog."

The Inventor of the Match.

The first match was the product of the ingenuity of John Frederick Komerer, who early in the nineteenth century was imprisoned in the penitentiary at Hohenasperg, in Germany. He invented the lucifer match while in his gloomy dungeon. The German government forbade the manufacture of matches on the ground of public policy because some children playing with them had caused a fire. Komerer was ruined by Viennese competition when he was released from prison and died a pauper. Up to 1862 the Vienna manufacturers controlled the match business of the entire world.

A Way Out.

"I have six doctors, and they can't agree on what ails me. Three think it's one thing and three think it's another. What would you advise me to do. Discharge them all?"

"No. Hire one more and give him the deciding vote."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Time's Changes.

"In ancient days," said the pedantic person, "the greatest triumph at the Olympian games was won by means of a four horse chariot."

"And now," said the thoroughly indignant athlete, "some of 'em are content to win with a one horse referee."—Washington Star.

Better Than Wealth.

Employ your time by improving yourself by other men's documents; so shall you come easily by what others have labored hard for. Prefer knowledge to wealth, for the one is transitory, the other perpetual.

The Reward.

Poet's Wife—My husband read this poem at a public celebration before thousands of people. Alas, it was the last poem he ever wrote. Publisher—I see. Did they lynch him or shoot him?—Leslie's Weekly.

NOTICE OF STREET WORK

Public notice is hereby given, that the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, on the 6th day of April 1910, did, at its meeting on said day, adopt a Resolution of Intention, No. 336, to order the following street work to be done, to-wit:

First: That all that portion of

from the South line of Fourth Street to the North line of Fifth Street, including all intersections of streets (excepting such portions of said street and intersections as are required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon), be graded, oiled and tamped in accordance with the plan and profile on file in the office of the City Engineer, and specifications for the construction of graded, tamped and oiled streets on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said specifications being numbered 9, excepting that from the South line of Fourth Street to the Easterly prolongation across said Franklin Court of the South line of Lot 8, Block 20, of the Town of Glendale as per map recorded in Book 21, pages 89-90 of Miscellaneous Records of Los Angeles County, California, in addition to the regular treatment under specifications Number 9, there shall be incorporated into the roadway a layer of gravel 2½ inches thick, of which the maximum pieces will pass through a 2½-inch ring and the minimum pieces will not pass through a ½-inch ring, in the following manner: When the roadway is tamped to within 2½ inches of the surface, the 2½ inches of gravel of the sizes as above specified shall then be evenly spread over the entire surface and tamped into said roadway, and then completed as provided for in Specifications Number 9.

Second: That a cement curb be constructed along the Westerly side of the roadway of said Franklin Court from the South line of Fourth Street to the North line of Fifth Street, including returns at all street intersections (excepting along such portions of the line of said roadway upon which a cement curb has already been constructed to the official line and grade) in accordance with the specifications for the construction of cement curbs on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said specifications being numbered 2, except that on the West side of said roadway from the South line of the Fourth Street to the Easterly prolongation across said Franklin Court of the South line of Lot 12 of aforesaid Town of Glendale, the curb shall be placed six feet from the property line instead of the distance as specified in said specifications number 2.

SECTION 2. That the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale hereby finds upon estimates directed to be furnished and furnished by the City Engineer that the total cost of said improvement will be greater than fifty cents per front foot along each line of said street, including the cost of intersections, and it is hereby determined, in pursuance of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California, approved February 27, 1893, as amended by an Act of the Legislature amending said last named Act, which amending Act became a law March 2, 1889, that bonds shall be issued to represent the cost of said improvement. Said bonds shall be serial, extending over a period of ten years from their date, and an even annual, proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable, by coupon, on the second day of January every year after their date, until the whole are paid, and said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum on all sums unpaid, payable semi-annually, by coupon, on the second days of January and July, respectively, of each year, until the whole of said principal and interest are paid.

Reference is hereby made to said Resolution No. 336 for further particulars of said work.

F. R. SINCLAIR,
Street Superintendent of the City of Glendale.

THIS LOOKS LIKE PROGRESS.

While the business section of Glendale is forging ahead with remarkable rapidity we must not neglect to take notice of the manner in which the residence portion of the city is taking leap after leap in the direction of a second Pasadena—and even greater. In the history of Glendale there has never been a time when the building of homes has been more active than it is at the present time. As to the class of houses going up it is hard to draw any particular line, for they range from $1000 and even less in some section, up to $6000 and $7000 in others. The average Glendale home, however, will cost about $2500. These homes are generally of the bungalow type, the majority of them being the one-story type, while some have a story and a half. Some homes of two stories are going up, but these are scarce.

For the benefit of the "show me" class we might, in an off-hand manner, introduce them to the following facts:

The Co-operative Building company is putting 34 modern homes in the region of Casa Verdugo. These homes will range around the $1500 mark and will be sold when completed, and some of them are going before they are completed.

The Peerless Building company has finished four beautiful homes which are worth about $2500, and are on Fairview street east of Brand boulevard, and are putting up five more on Milford street west of Brand which will be worth about the amount. The houses already completed have been sold and are, at this early date, being occupied.

O. W. Odell has just completed fifteen new homes on Dryden street near Louise, most of which have already been disposed of by the builder for about $1500 each. The remainder are going fast.

N. C. Kelly is just starting thirteen bungalows about two blocks east of Casa Verdugo among the foothills, which, when completed, will be put on the market. These homes will be of a good grade.

Mr. Jack, recently of the East, has purchased a lot at the corner of Second and Louise streets from Mrs. Ruth C. Skews, with the intention of erecting a residence which will cost about $6000. This home will be of the cement type and will be occupied by the owner.

Chandler & Lawson are building a residence on Ivy street which will cost about $2200. This home will contain six rooms and will be sold when completed.

In the real estate line it may be mentioned that 197 acres have been purchased this week by the Glendale syndicate composed of Tupper & Co., R. A. Blackburn, F. H. Vesper and J. P. Shropshire, from Fred Verdugo. This land adjoins the Verdugo subdivision on the east and is a choice piece of property. The price paid was $16,000. It is the intention of the syndicate to put water on the property, cut it into 5-acre pieces and put it on the market at once.

This week Chandler & Lawson report the following sales: A six-room bungalow on Tenth street to Mrs. Rose of Palms for $3250. The home is not yet finished, but the new owner will move in just as soon as completed, which will be about two weeks. A six-room bungalow on Ivy street to E. D. Reynolds for $3250. This home was bought for speculation. They have exchanged a five-room bungalow on Central avenue for a six-room cottage which they are building on Arden avenue for M. B. Harris. Four lots on Seventh street to Alex Mitchell of Goldfield for $800 each. Mr. Mitchell will at once erect a seven-room house on one of the lots to cost about $3000, and as soon as this is completed he will start on three other homes, one on each of the other lots, these homes to cost about $2200 each. This firm reports a demand for better class homes at this time than there was this time last year. There are also more calls for small acreage than can be supplied.

R. A. Blackburn has sold a lot in the Livingston tract on Jackson street to Phil A. Olsin of Los Angeles.

A. P. Offutt has the foundation laid for a two-story brick business block on the old High school grounds on Fourth street. The building will be 25 feet wide by 65 in depth. One large storeroom below and apartments above. Pressed brick front, plate glass windows and other attractive features will make this one of the best business structures in Glendale.

Mrs. Lena M. Jack entertained with a birthday party Tuesday evening at her home, 1140 West Tenth street, in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Adaline. Throughout the various rooms roses in profusion were utilized to beautiful effect, Ferns and smilax assisted in making the home exceedingly attractive. The guests were Eugene H. Pettijohn of Los Angeles, Miss Adalbide Tuckel of Pasadena, Victor L. Jack of Denver, I. H. Russell, Dr. Jessie A. Russell and Master Harold Russell.

The treasurer's report followed, giving the expenditures for the year, with a balance on hand of a snug sum, with which to begin the new year's work. The election of officers resulted in the following: President, Mrs. Johnson; vice-president, Mrs. Ward; secretary, Mrs. Kirby; treasurer, Miss Penny; press reporter Mrs. Pack.

Mrs. Johnson, who had served the guild so faithfully during the past year, thanked the members for a continuance of their fidelity towards her by giving her the office of president for another year. She asked that the same spirit of hearty co-operation might be given that characterized past efforts. Various committees were appointed for entertainments, suppers, etc., after which delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell and Mr. Geo. Mitchell.

The next meeting will be April 28th in the guild hall, commencing at 2 p. m., when every member and all others interested, shall receive a cordial welcome.

ROAD TO VERDUGO PARK.

The Glendale-Eagle Rock railway company has applied to the board of trustees for a franchise for an extension of its present line, commencing at the corner of Glendale avenue and Fourth street, thence northerly along the east side of Glendale avenue to the northern city limits. This company has also made application before the board of supervisors for a franchise from the northerly city limits along said avenue to Oak street, where the avenue crosses the Salt Lake company's Glendale branch line. From Oak street to Verdugo park a private right of way thirty feet wide has been deeded to the company by Judge Ross and Capt. Thom, the proposed line running through their property.

John A. Pirtle, one of the owners of the Verdugo ranch property, has given a free right of way from the south line of Verdugo park through the park to the northern park limits. Pirtle Co. has also subscribed a bonus of $20,000 for the construction of the road.

This Verdugo park line will connect with the Pacific Electric line on Brand boulevard and the Eagle Rock line, and from Brand boulevard and Fourth street to the park, and also from the corner of Colorado street and Central avenue, Eagle Rock, the eastern terminus of the company's line, north to the park a fare of five cents will be charged. Grading of the road will commence within fifteen days from this date, and the agreement reads that the line will be completed and cars in operation on or before the fourth of July, as far north as the old Verdugo ranch house.

Many improvements are planned to the park which will cost thousands of dollars, among which will be a $20,000 cafe, which will be started immediately after the completion of the line. Cars will be run from this place north every hour or less during the week days, and every half hour or less on Sundays and holidays. Several new cars will be added as soon as the line is completed. When completed this will make one of the most scenic one-day trips from Los Angeles.

Later this line will doubtless be extended to La Crescenta, as the people there are willing to pay a liberal bonus and give a free right of way for the line if it runs at least two miles north of the Verdugo ranch.

Mrs. O'Brien arrived from Philadelphia a few days ago on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Farrell of Verdugo Road.

Mrs. Robert Ropkins and son Robbie will leave for Chicago the first of May, where they will visit several months.

Davenport & Black sold this week the building which stands on the Oak Knoll place, to H. P. Myers, who will move the structure from the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Tucker, former residents of Tropico, who have been residing near Ontario the past year, have sold their ranch and are residing in Pomona.

Capt. Heaton was a veteran of the Civil war, having been a member of Co. A, 13th Illinois Infantry, and captain of Co. M of the 11th Missouri cavalry.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Webster entertained as their guests, at their home "Ivy Nook," Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lyman and children of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Thorne and children of Long Beach.

Mrs. J. L. Gist, who has been the house guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Light, the past three months, after a pleasant sojourn at Long Beach, returned to her home at Santa Rosa the first of the week.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church of this place held an all-day meeting in the church parlors Thursday of this week. The two missionary societies also held an all-day joint meeting in the church Tuesday.

Capt. E. M. Heaton died at the home of Mrs. H. W. Melrose, his daughter, at Tropico, last Friday. The funeral services were conducted by N. P. Banks Post Monday and interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery.

Winebrenner & Parrat report this week the sale of Lot 5 on Boynton avenue in the Boynton tract to Thomas M. Ziegler of Los Angeles, who will start a chicken ranch on the property. The price paid for the lot was $600.

Mrs. A. W. Tower, who is contemplating a trip to her home in the East, has decided to leave the latter part of May. Prof. Tower will not depart for the East to spend his vacation with Mrs. Tower until the latter part of June.

Edward Myers is putting up a small building on the Fernando road between Tropico avenue and Central, which will be occupied by a lunch room and ice cream parlor. The establishment will be conducted by Louie J. Hocquard.

Mrs. James B. Maxwell of Park avenue, left for Oakland the first of the week, where she will visit her son Guy Maxwell, instructor in the Van Der Nallian school of civil and mining engineering. Mrs. Maxwell will also attend the W. R. C. department convention, which is in session in Oakland, as the delegate of N. P. Banks W. R. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burch of Las Vegas, New Mexico, are the guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Burch of "Twin Pines." This is Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burch's first visit to Tropico in thirteen years, and they notice many improvements and a like number of changes. They spent their honeymoon in Tropico thirteen years ago at "Twin Pines."

Mrs. C. C. Chandler gave a delightful party to seventeen young friends of Miss Gladys Chandler Peckham last Saturday afternoon in honor of the sixth birthday anniversary of Miss Gladys. Among the enjoyable features of the afternoon was an old-fashioned taffy pull in which all the lads and lassies were overjoyed to participate. The affair was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chandler on Cypress avenue.

Joseph Marple, Miss Fannie Marple, Harry Marple and Albert Marple attended a camp reunion which was held in Eagle Rock canyon last Monday night by a crowd of young people who enjoyed several weeks at Camp Hoegee last summer. In the canyon the company sat around a large fire and rehearsed scenes and stories of the good old camping days, told jokes and ate peanuts, popcorn and fudge to their heart's content. The crowd numbered thirty-one.

Work on the clearing of the ground on which the Tropico bank will be erected was started this week. It is expected that work on the foundation for this structure will be started early next week. The work will be rushed to completion. The small building which was occupied by the Tropico Feed and Fuel company at the corner of Central avenue and the San Fernando road has been moved onto the opposite side of the San Fernando road about 100 feet north. This company will still occupy the building and has fenced in a large enclosure which they will use as their stockyard. The barn also has been moved across the street and several small outbuildings have been constructed.

Mr. Hagerman of the firm of G. H. A. Goodwin company of Los Angeles, stated this week that that company would wait no longer for the railroad company to state definitely what they intended to do in the matter of running an electric road north through their holdings on the north side of Tropico, but would continue at once with the improvement work on their land. The grading is being done by Mr. Fishel and just as soon as this is completed the work of laying the cement sidewalks and curbs will be commenced. There are about 35 acres in this piece and the lots will average in size about 50x150 feet. The opening up of this tract and the selling of the lots will practically "make" the western section of this place. This locality has been sleeping for years and needed something of this nature to rouse them out of their slumbers; but they do not need it any worse than many other parts of this place. Possibly the building of the new bank building will start the ball of improvement rolling.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Quick and family, former residents of Glendale who lost their household goods, clothing, etc. by fire in Imperial Valley, Tuesday morning, April 5, desire to express their heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation to their friends and neighbors of Glendale and Tropico who so kindly and generously aided them financially and with a large box of clothing, etc.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.

Rev. Ward preached an excellent sermon last Sunday to our people.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society held their monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Halleck on Moore avenue. The meeting was well attended and full of interest.

Until further notice our prayer meetings will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:45 in the church parlors. Heertofore the meetings have been held in the homes of members.

The church grounds are growing more beautiful every day. The new sidewalk together with the flowers and grasses have transformed the place. If some one with a scythe will cut the weeds in the parking and on the rear it will add very much to its already "homey" appearance.

Our Sunday evening services are growing in interest. Last Sunday evening the church parlors were packed. The Endeavor Society takes up the first three-quarters of the hour and then the pastor gives a Bible reading using the Gospel by John. Next Sunday evening the last verses of First chapter will be used.

The subject next Sunday morning will be, "The Value of a Narrow Life."

CLUB ENTERTAINMENT.

The art and literature section of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon club gave an entertainment on Thursday evening at G. A. R. hall. Each number on the program was well rendered and thoroughly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience.

WEST GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Stine spent Sunday at Long Beach.

Mrs. R. H. Hammond of 1509 Ivy street had as a week-end guest her aunt, Mrs. Giddings of Tropico.

Mrs. Ethel Haynes and baby of Los Angeles spent the day at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. E. Clay, 1517 Ivy street.

Mrs. Georgia Francis, census marshal of the North Glendale school is in her rounds, so if she has not already called on you, be prepared for her coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kelty entertained a party of Pittsburg friends at their home on Ivy street on Sunday last. These people have purchased a farm in the vicinity of Los Angeles, and intend to make it their home.

I wonder what is the matter with Brother Story this week? He surely must be having an awful tussle with that frog in his throat, for we haven't heard a word from him since he swallowed the critter. But, then, he has to be very careful of his vocal chords, for they are certainly highly prized by (?).

Dan Kelty, not Dan Jr., was seen coming home with "an awful load" one day recently. He claimed it was nothing but a bundle of lampblack. If he can claim the remotest kinship to Geo. Washington—why, we'll call it square. If not, he will have to treat us to the best in Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Stine, assisted by the ladies of the Rebeccah lodge, gave a most delightful dance at their cozy home on West Fourth street. About fifty guests were present and from all reports a jolly good time was spent. Excellent music was given during the evening dand ainty refreshments were served. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, abundance of flowers from the hostess' garden being used for the purpose.

The Domestic Gas Company is certainly rushing things lately. Pipes are being laid as fast as the steam digger can furnish a ditch for them. They are now laid north on Central avenue, as far as Second street, west on Second to Remington, and are now working on the cross streets. Pipes were deposited yesterday on Ivy street and West Fourth as far as Columbia avenue, and now, if the company will only fill them with something more than hot air, why the residents will certainly appreciate it; especially those housewives who are having so much trouble lately with their bluedame oil stoves.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH NOTES.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the West Glendale school met on Thursday afternon last. Among the many important features of the afternoon's entertainment was an entertaining and interesting lecture on Mexico by Mr. Yarnell who has recently returned from Mexico City. He brought with him a great many curios and models of many different articles pertaining to the people of that country, such as stoves, cooking utensils, different pieces of furniture, wearing apparel, etc. According to his version of matrimony among the young men of Mexico City all of the young men of Glendale who have anything of that sort on their minds had better steer clear of that neck o' woods, for there the men not only have to have a plentiful supply of clothing, etc., for themselves, but in addition are obliged to provide and furnish the home and all the intended wife's clothes as well.

The Child Study Circle has decided to give an ice cream treat to the room having the largest percentage of mothers present at the end of the term and it seems to be meeting with favor from the number of parents present at each meeting.

The West Glendale second team had a very lively game of baseball on the W. G. Diamond, on Tuesday afternoon, but sad to relate, they weer beaten by the High School scrubs. Score 5 to 4—not very bad—but all the same they had to treat. There will be another game for this afternoon, West Glendale vs. Tropico. The home boys hope for the best, but Tropico boys certainly can play ball.

The lecture given on Friday last by Rev. Morrison, pastor of the church, Fifth and Pacific, was well attended. The subject of his evening's talk was "Reminiscences of the War," and proved to be very entertaining to both old and young. The little church was appropriately decorated with the national colors, and a large portrait of President Lincoln. There will be another lecture on the same subject this, Friday, evening, to which the public is cordially invited. A silver offering will be taken.

The membership of this church continues to grow. Last Sunday there was an attendance of between 60 and 70 Sunday School scholars against five or six at about the same time last year.
